THE ENDERTON FAMILY

This manuscript is the result of an amateur's effort to gather data on a family with an unusual name, and about which no genealogy has been written.

There is herein a scarcity of information, especially on the descendants of John Enderton's children Mary Aument, James H., and George M. And it is reasonable to believe that Thomas Enderton must have had more children than the one son William Henry.

Every Enderton, however, found to date in the telephone directories of the main cities of North America, or otherwise located, has been a descendant of either John, Thomas, or William, who are believed to have been brothers.

Additions and corrections will be greatly appreciated by the compiler

THE ENDERTON FAMILY

At the time this is being written, three branches of the Enderton Family in America have been located. All Endertons located to date are descendants of John, Thomas, and William, who are believed to have been brothers. Their parentage has not yet been determined. It is possible that their father may have been the John Enderton who, in the Sixth Series of the Pennsylvania Archives, is listed among the Private Soldiers of the Fourth Class of the Fifth Battalion Philadelphia City Militia which served during the Revolution. On a certificate dated 7 Sep 1779 of Captain George Forepaugh, his Company Commander, John is listed among members being drawn in the Fourth Class and being called into actual service and directed to get themselves in readiness to march in three days. John Enderton's name again appears on a General Return of the Fifth Battalion: at that time he was "with the enemy", apparently a prisoner.

Given names such as John, William, Robert, George, Thomas, Frank, James, and Charles are common to the three branches of the Enderton Family. John was born in 1800, Thomas about 1809, and William in 1817. The above, coupled with the additional fact that the name "Enderton" is not common, tend to support the belief that these three Endertons were brothers, and that they may have been sons of the John Enderton who served in the Revolution.

The earliest mention of the family name "Enderton", found after only a limited research by the compiler of these data on the Enderton Family, was in a will of William Mather of Westhoughton England in 1602 when James Enderton, called James Anderton in another part of the will, was listed as executor of the will of his brother-in-law. From this it appears that the name Enderton and Anderton may at one time have been the same.

There are many Andertons in England. For example, on 17 Feb 1544 a John Anderton and Elizabeth Smyth, alias Gregson, of the diocese of Westchester, were issued a marriage license at the Faculty Office of the Archbishop of Canterbury at London. According to the Cheshire Parish Registers, a John Anderton of Prestbury married Ellen Bennet on 21 Apr 1679; a John Anderton of Seddington married Martha Bayley on 26 Dec 1696; a John Anderton of Lymm married Meire de Bucklow on 12 Feb 1703; a John Anderton of Gansworth married Mary Vernon on 13 Dec 1772; and a Thomas Anderton of the same town married Mary Hammond on 2 Nov 1779.

In the Heraldic Visitation of 1664-5 to Lancaster and Cheshire, the Calendar of Names of Families which entered Pedigrees in that visitation (from a manuscript by Dugdale containing sketches of the arms allowed, preserved at Broughton Hall, near Manchester, in 1803), includes: Anderton of Anderton, Anderton of Fuxton, and Anderton of Lostock. There are Andertons of Anderton, Lancaster County, England, who are direct descendants of Edward III, King of England, through John of Gaunt. Their arms, crest, and pedigrees may be seen in Burke's History of the Landed Gentry--. On their arms is a chevron between three shackle bolts; the crest is a curlew or sometimes a stork; the motto: "We stoop not".

In addition to the town of Anderton, there was a hamlet of Enderton 2 miles southeast of Parkgate, Cheshire, England, where the Enderton Family may have originated. The County Archivist of the Cheshire County Record Office, The Castle, Chester, England, writes that there was a hamlet of Enderton just south of Parkgate in Cheshire, but he can find no evidence of its present whereabouts on contemporary maps; that the hamlet would have been part of the parish of Neston. The Revd. Canon GB Hempton, Vicar of the Parish of Neston, Wirral, Cheshire, writes that there is a district in his Parish called "Pinderton", which may be a corruption of "Enderton".

This compiler has found records of Andertons, but as yet no Endertons, who emigrated from England to America. According to Vol. 3 of the Maryland General Bulletin (Apr 1931), the following male Andertons arrived in Maryland in the year indicated: James 1656 '63, Joseph 1660 '3, William 1665, Peter 1667, John 1673. Vol. XLI of the Maryland Archives lists a John Anderton being sued for rent due a Thomas Taylor on 17 Aug 1663. Later, on 29 June 1702, a Richard Anderton of Knowesley England, age 13 years 9 months, sailed on the ship Eleanor as a servant to Thomas Jamison of Maryland. The Early Records of the Church and Parish of All Faiths, St. Mary's Co., Maryland 1692-1688. 1696 a John T Anderton who was a member of the Church 30 Oct 1727 and on 12 Apr 1734. William Anderton at the age of 18 years left the Port of London in July 1775 on the ship Fortune for Maryland as an indentured servant for four years. A John Anderton of New York in the early 1800's is mentioned in the Boston Transcript (2705) of 31 Dec 1934. (This source has not been checked into as yet by this compiler).

As John Enderton's parents are supposed to have migrated from England to America shortly after their marriage (John was born in New Jersey in 1800), none of the above Andertons is a likely candidate for the father of John Enderton unless it be the John Anderton who was in New York about 1800. Possibly, though, this may be the John Enderton who served in Philadelphia in 1779.

Little information has been gained from the 1790 Federal Census (that for New Jersey, where John Enderton was born, unfortunately is missing). The Census for Virginia lists as heads of family John Anderton and Ralph Anderton of Gloucester County and George Anderton of Halifax County-- but no Endertons. The Census for Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, North Carolina and South Carolina had no Anderton nor Enderton as head of family.

The nearest approach to the name was "Enerison", of which there were John, Peter and Jacob in the New York Census; all of them residing in Claverack Town, Columbia County, which at the time of the Revolution was part of Albany County. The records of the Office of New York Comptroller show that a John, Peter and Jacob "Enderson" of Albany County had served in the 8th Regiment Albany County Militia during the Revolution. These "Enertsons" and "Endersons" undoubtedly were the same persons. It must be remembered that not many in 1790 could write or spell, and the Census taker wrote down names as they sounded to him. Records of the Dutch Reformed Church of Claverack, Columbia County, New York, show that a Jacob and Elisabeth Enderson had sponsored a child being baptized on 21 March 1762. This Jacob "Enderson" of Claverack is quite probably the Jacob "Enertson" of Claverack in the later 1790 Census and the Jacob "Enderson" of the 8th Regiment Albany County Militia of the Revolution.

From the above confusing discussion, it appears that there is a possibility that the name Enderton originally may have been Anderton. And that Anderton may have been changed by poor spelling, pronunciation or writing to Enderson, Enertson and Enderton. On the other hand, Anderton may have changed to Enderton long ago in England, and the American Enderton line may have sprung from a resident of the hamlet of Ender-ton in Cheshire County before it was changed to "Hinderton".

Upon publication of the "E" volumes of the American Genealogical Biographical Index (Rider-Greafrey Memorial Library) undoubtedly useful Enderton entries will be found.

According to a prominent genealogist, "the name Enderton is a dialect English form of Anderton, from the town of Anderton, Lancashire. 'Andert-Ton' denoted 'Andert's Estate'. The Norse-English Andert (the Biblical Andrew) translates as 'strong, manly'. Ancestral records list Peter Anderton of Anderton in 1580".

Having given the above general and partial background for those who may do further research on the origin of the Endertons, this compiler will proceed with what is known of his greatgrandfather John Enderton, followed by a list of John's known descendants. This in turn will be followed by a list of known descendants of Thomas Enderton and of William Enderton. At the end is an Index of names.

From: The History of Whiteside County--- by Charles Bent, 1877:

"John Enderton was a native of the state of New Jersey, and born 9 Oct 1800. He came to Sterling in 1839 and was a cabinet maker by trade. Mr. C.C. Judd came with him, and the two opened the first cabinet shop in Sterling. Mr. Enderton was married three times, his first wife being Clarissa C. Goodwin, second Nancy Warren (Warner), and third Maria Atkins. The children by the first marriage were Jane and Clara. Jane married Andrew McMoore and lives in Louisiana Missouri. Clara married Albert (Abner) Gilbert, children Frank and two who died in infancy; after the death of Mr. Gilbert, Mrs. Gilbert married Gerge Gainu (Gainer), who died in Sterling in 1876.

By the second marriage the children were: Mary L., James H., George, Maria A., Abram B. and Sherman B.- twins, William H., and Robert, the latter dying in infancy. William H. died in California about 6 years ago. Mary L. married Henry Aument, who was afterwards drowned in a boat as it passed over the dam at Sterling; children Harry A. and 2 who died in infancy.

James H. married Lucinda Root; he is a farmer and lives in Iowa; children: Sophia, Jennie, and one who died in infancy.

George is married and has 3 children: Ina, Clara, and Cassius; he is a mechanic and lives in Wisconsin.

Maria married William Barker; children: Marion, Cortland, Bert, and an infant; the family live in California.

Sherman B. is married, has 3 children, and lives in Lyndon, Kansas.

Abram B. lives at Rock Falls, is unmarried, and follows the occupation of a commercial traveler.

There was 1 child by the 3rd marriage, Emma, who lives with her mother in Fulton County, Illinois.

Mr. Enderton went to California in 1872 and died in 1873."

JOHN ENDERTON (1800-1874)

Most of what is known of John Enderton (a photo is available) and his descendants is taken from Litchfield Connecticut Vital Records, the 1830 Census of Litchfield Connecticut, the 1850 Census of Whiteside County Illinois, the obituary of John in a Sterling Illinois newspaper of 1874(?), a family sketch in the book History of Whiteside County, Illinois, from its First Settlement to the Present Time, with Numerous Biographical and Family Sketches edited by Charles Bert in 1877, and from family records of his descendants. The latter source is somewhat limited, for some of John Enderton's descendants appear to be retiring, independent, and not very closely knit by family ties.

John Enderton is reported to have been born 9 Oct 1800 in Newark N.J.; he died 27 Apr 1874 at the home of his daughter Elizabeth Maria Barker at Old Nicolaus, Sutter County, Calif. His grave has not yet been located, but is believed to be in the old part of the cemetery at Nicolaus where floods long ago washed away grave markers.

His parents, according to his obituary, emigrated from England to America soon after their marriage. The names of his parents or from what part of England they came are as yet unknown. It appears that he had a sister, Susan Ann. The First Church Records (Connecticut) Vol 3 p. 237 state that Susan Ann Enderton of Suffield on 11 June 1825 married Joseph M Cooper of Springfield. The Windsor Vital Records Vol 2 p. 138 give the marriage date as 4 July 1825 and the clergyman as Rev. Henry A Rowland. It is thought that John also had brothers. As stated in the preceding account of the Enderton Family, it is possible that he had a brother Thomas whose son William Henry Enderton has descendants now living mainly in New York state and Ohio. Also, a William Enderton, born in 1817, may have been a younger brother. The descendants of these two are listed at the end of the account of John's descendants.

The Census records of New Jersey for 1790, 1800, and 1810 are lost, owing to the burning of Washington DC by the British in the war of 1812. This increases the difficulty of locating John's parents and brothers. In 1800 when John was born, the Township of Newark included practically all of the present Essex County except Caldwell Township, which then embraced all "the Caldwells", Cedar Grove, Roseland, Essex Falls, and Livingston of today. The early Newark directories, on the other hand, cover only the area included in the present "downtown" section. This makes the phrase "born in Newark NJ in 1800" legally correct but misleading.

When a young man of 18, John went from the New York City area to Litchfield Connecticut and learned the cabinet-making trade. His obituary states that he was one of the inventors of the world renowned wooden clocks and was engaged in their manufacture for a number of years. It was in Connecticut that the friendship between John Enderton and the cabinet-maker Charles C Judd developed;- a friendship that was continued by their children and grandchildren.

John was married three times. He was first married in Litchfield Connecticut on 25 Nov 1823 (Litchfield Vital Records Vol 2 p. 122) to Clarissa C Goodwin by Rev. H. S. Jones. She died in New York City, leaving two young daughters, Jane and Clara (Clarissa).

Jane, born about 1826 in Connecticut, became the wife of Andrew McMoore (born about 1819 in Pennsylvania), lived in Sterling Illinois, and later in Louisiana Missouri. A photo of Jane reveals that her eyes resembled those of her father John.

Daughter Clara on 19 Jan 1847, in Sterling Illinois, was married to Abner (Albert) Gilbert by her uncle Rev. A.J. Warner. She had three children: Frank and two who died in infancy. A photo of Clara shows that she did not resemble her father. Upon the death of Gilbert in 1858, Clara married George Gainer, who died in Sterling Illinois in 1876. No attempt has yet been made to locate other descendants of John Enderton and his first wife.

The Connecticut Census of 1830 shows that John Enderton, aged 30, was head of a household which had: 1 male 30-40 (John), 1 male 20-30 (probably his son-in-law Joseph M Cooper), 1 female under 5 (daughter Clara), 1 female 5-10 (daughter Jane), and 1 female 20-30 (probably John's married sister Susan Ann Cooper). That same year, however, on 2 May 1830, John Enderton of Litchfield married Nancy Warner of Waterbury (Connecticut Vital Records Vol 3 p. 52). If the 1830 Census was taken after this date, the "female 20-30" would be John's new wife Nancy, and the "male 20-30" probably a younger brother of John- perhaps Thomas.

It was by John's second marriage, to Nancy Warner in 1830, that he left the greatest number of descendants. Nancy, born 15 Nov 1809 and died 13 Apr 1847 aged 38 years 5 months 2 days, was a daughter of Ard and Mary (Bronson) Warner of Waterbury Connecticut. (This compiler has an old photo believed to be of Nancy's mother, who died 20 Apr 1846). Nancy's youngest brother, Rev. Abram Joseph Warner, born 1 Jul 1821, was an Episcopal priest, graduated from Trinity College in 1842, tutored at Jubilee College 1842-45, preached in Sterling Illinois and vicinity 1845-50, founded the Episcopal Church of Grand Detour Illinois, served as an Army Chaplain during the Civil War, and from 1881 to 1885 was Rector of St Paul's Episcopal Church of Angelica NY. He kept a remarkable and detailed journal from the time he entered Trinity College until nearly his death. (This compiler has photos of him).

Nancy's other brothers and sisters were: Maria and her twin, Mary, born 28 Oct 1805; Elizabeth A, born 30 Sep 1807, who married Daniel F Batchellor and lived in Sterling Ill.; Sherman Bronson Warner (after whom Sherman Bronson Enderton was named) born 15 Jan 1813 and married Lydia A Hall;

"The Western Reserve, of which Medina County is a portion, is situated in the northeast corner of Ohio. Its length east and west is 120 miles by an average width of 50 miles from south to north; comprising an area of 3,800,000 acres. A half million of acres was stricken off the west part, and donated by the State of Connecticut, to certain sufferers by fire in the Revolutionary War.

Medina County was formed 18 Feb 1812 and organized in Apr 1818.

The first settlers of the county were principally from Connecticut. The village now called Medina was originally called Mecca, as can be seen on maps of an early date."

Charles Warner born 23 Oct 1815; and Mercia, born 26 Sep 1818 and married Levi Bolster. (This compiler has a photo of Mercia, which she sent to Sherman Bronson Enderton inscribed "to my beloved nephew").

In 1831 John and Nancy returned to Connecticut from Plymouth where they had spent the summer, preparing to move to Ohio. From Connecticut they went to Medina County Ohio where it is believed that at least six of their nine children were born. In 1839 they moved to Sterling, Whiteside County, Illinois, where John Enderton and Charles C Judd, with whom John had worked in Connecticut, opened the first cabinet shop in Sterling. The two families remained close friends through the next two generations. Sterling remained John's home. Here Nancy had at least two more children: William H, and Robert, who died in infancy. The nine known children of John and Nancy are: Mary L, Alice, James H, George M, Elizabeth Maria, Sherman Bronson, Abram Burdette, William H, and Robert. This compiler has photos of all except Mary L.

When Nancy died in 1847, she was buried in the Enderton plot of the old Sterling Cemetery, where her grave monument also lists her youngest son Robert, who died 25 June 1846, aged 6 months. In the same plot are buried Henry Aument, born about 1828, died aged 30 years, the husband of Nancy's daughter Mary L, and two of Mary's children: Eugene ("Genie") and Mamie.

Mary's son Harry A Aument, whose address at the time was 761 Elmore Place, Brooklyn NY, listed John Enderton's children and some of their descendants on a piece of stationery from the Royal Alexandria of Winnipeg Canada. This apparently was given to Charles Henry Enderton (son of William (3) Enderton) of Winnipeg, and is now in possession of William's granddaughter Amy Bringham. This scrap of paper gave this compiler his first data on John Enderton's daughter Alice and her children.

Harry A Aument has relatives, and may have descendants, residing in the adjacent town of Rock Falls Illinois. Mrs Wilma Aument of 527 W 10th, Rock Falls, has two Aument albums filled with old photos in excellent condition. Not one of the photos is marked with a name. Neither she nor her aunt, Mrs Heman Aument of 517 Dixon Ave, Rock Falls, can identify any person in the albums. Perhaps a photo of Mary Enderton Aument and of her mother Nancy are in those albums. One of the photos bears a striking resemblance to a daughter of this compiler and may be an unknown blood relative.

After Nancy's death, John "farmed out" his children, and in 1849 went to California in search of gold. He returned to Sterling after spending three years in California. The 1850 Census of Whiteside County, Illinois, taken while John was away in California, has considerable information on his children- and a few errors. The age of Abram B is correctly given as 11; that of his twin Sherman B is erroneously given as 13. It erroneously lists Mary L as "Maria", yet correctly lists Elizabeth M, who was erroneously listed as "Maria A" in the History of Whiteside County--. The Census also lists

From the History of Sterling Township:

"The Pioneer Mechanics of Whiteside County Report, responded to by A. McMoore, as follows: ---Pioneer Cabinet Makers: Mr. Allen of Albany and CC Judd and John Enderton of Sterling, all good workmen."

"The following are names of early settlers of Sterling with the years of their arrival: 1839: John Enderton, CC Judd, Oscar Rhodes, William C Boardman, William H Adams, George K Adams."

From the History of the City of Sterling:

"In 1838 the town was laid out and given the name of Chatham. The original settlers of Chatham were: Nelson Mason, John D Barrett, DC Cushman, DF Batcheller, John Enderton, A McMoore, Robert C Andrews, John Mason, and Hugh Wallace."

Jane McMoore, a daughter of John by his first wife, and her husband Andrew McMoore, at that time a 31 year old grocer. Listed also is Henry Aument who later married Mary L. We find Mary L and young William H living with their half sister Jane McMoore. James and George were then laborers on the farm of SW Cook. Elizabeth Maria was on a farm with her aunt Elizabeth (sister of Nancy Warner) and her uncle JW Enderton, who was one of the first wardens of Grace Episcopal Church of Sterling. Sherman B. was living with the family of John Pettigrew who, years later, with Henry Judd, accompanied Sherman B to Kansas. Abram B was living with the family of a wealthy farmer named Jacob Whipple. Alice was not found on the Census, as she probably was married and living in Chicago at that time. The Census lists all of Nancy's children as being born in Ohio, except William H, who was born in Illinois. Also on the Census we find Charles C Judd, cabinet maker, born in Connecticut, who came to Sterling with John.

The Sterling "Gazette" reports that on 22 Feb 1858 the early settlers of Sterling had their first formal reunion. John was there, and reported his location in the County as Coloma. In 1855 he had held the office of Collector for Whiteside County, and in 1868 was Assessor.

According to the History of Whiteside County--, John's third wife was Maria Atkins. There was one child by this marriage: Emma, who in 1877 lived with her mother in Fulton County, Illinois.

In November 1873 John again went to California, this time for his health. He had improved, and was preparing to return to Sterling when he suddenly was taken ill and died 27 Apr 1874.

His obituary in a Sterling Illinois newspaper of 1874? says in part: "John Enderton was unassuming and retiring in nature. He was appreciated only by those who knew him long and well. His educational advantages in early life had been limited, but being extremely fond of books and papers, few were better informed than he. He was thoroughly conversant with ancient as well as modern history, and assisted by a wonderful memory he could recall its details with the greatest of accuracy."

The obituary, besides listing the two daughters by his first wife, states that "8 of the 10" children born from his marriage to Nancy were then living, but makes no mention of his third marriage and the child therefrom.

Old photos, other than those already mentioned, have been obtained from the descendants of John's daughter Elizabeth Maria Barker and his son Sherman B Enderton. Some are of Nancy's relatives; it is not known if any are of Nancy herself.

Among the labeled photos is one of Hattie M Bolster, taken in Waterbury Connecticut. In a snapshot entitled "Four Generations", and taken at 21--Waterbury, Connecticut, are "Baby Aubrey", "Mildred", Mercia Bolster (Nancy's sister), an unnamed old lady (assumed to be Nancy's mother Mary Bronson Warner), and a colored maid.

The name "Bliss" appears in both collections. Among Elizabeth Maria's photos are John Rollins Bliss and Mrs Lyra Bliss, taken in Chicago; in Sherman B's collection are Captain Orlando M Bliss and Mrs OM Bliss (John's daughter Alice), taken in Dacorah Iowa. Orlando and Alice had a son John Bliss; whether he is the John Rollins Bliss of the photo is not known. A photo taken in Chicago of the pert Stella MacDonald, one of three children of Alice by her second marriage, has been identified by finding the list of Harry A Aument mentioned on page vi.

Among the many unnamed, are a young lady whose photo was taken by LD Benton of Waterbury Connecticut, a young couple taken in Davenport or Salisbury Mo., a tintype of a young girl, and a tintype of a middle-aged lady.

All that is known at present of the descendants of John Enderton, other than that given above, is listed on the following pages. It will be noted that little is yet known of the descendants of some of his children, particularly of Mary L Aument, James H, and George.

(The system of giving numbers to individuals on the following pages serves mainly to identify children with their parents and grandparents; in many cases, because of lack of information, the numbers do not indicate the order in which born).

"Mr. Harry A Aument, as is well known, is a highly educated shorthand scholar, and under his tutoring pupils early and quickly master this almost indispensable art."

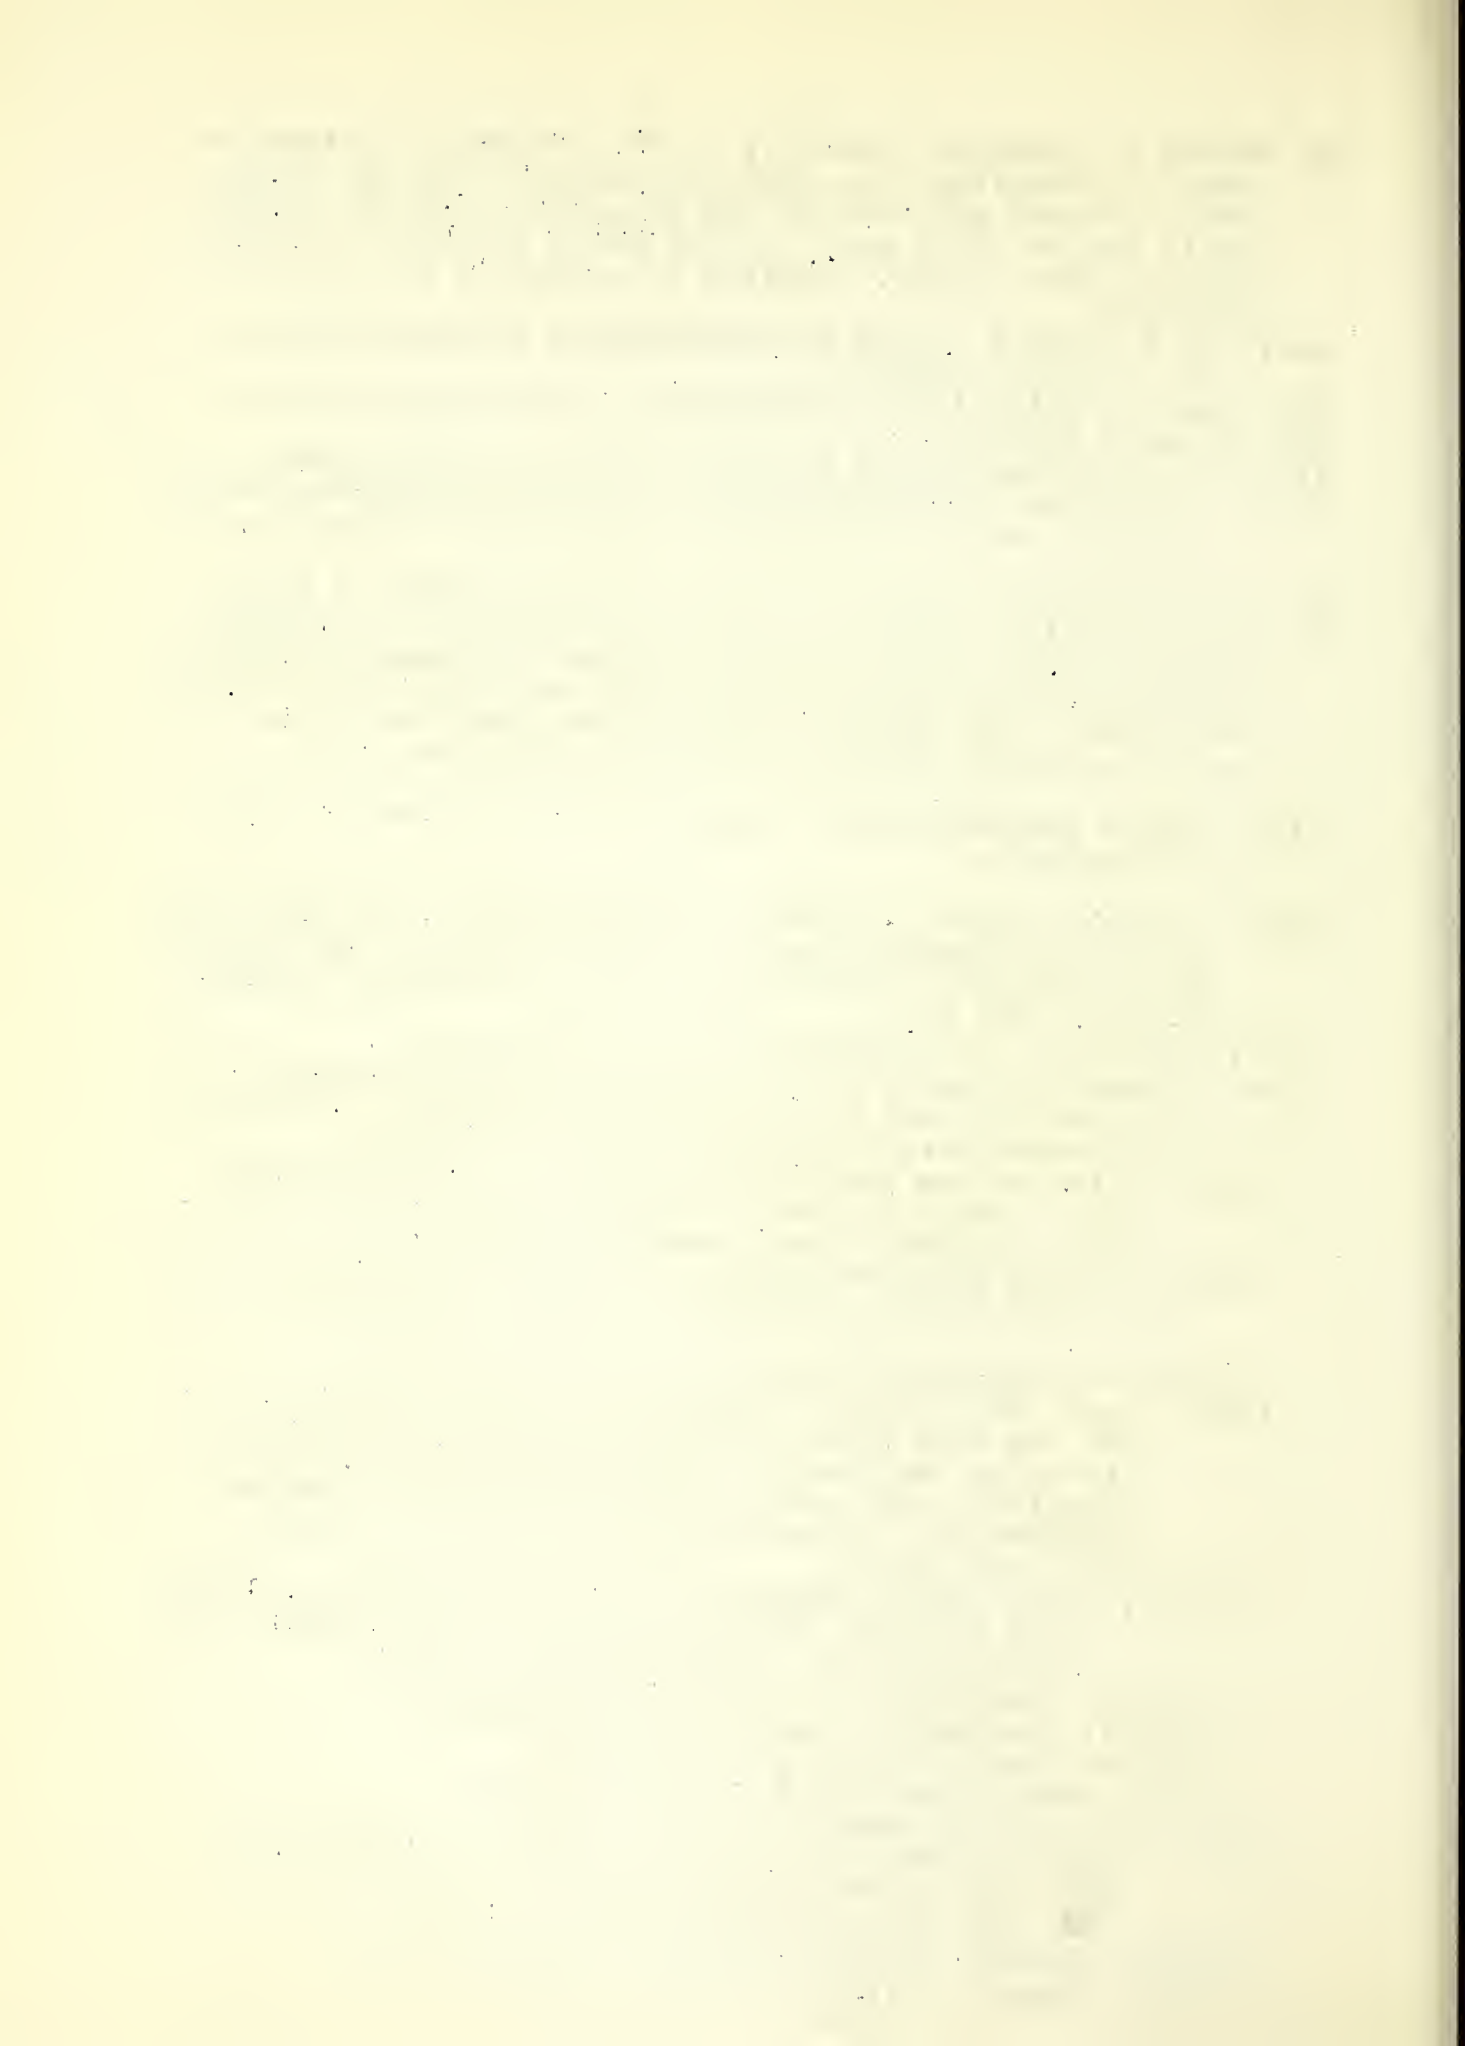

"The proprietors (of the school- Harry A and Loomis Aument) are well adapted for their arduous position as instructors and well known for sterling integrity and perseverance."

DESCENDANTS OF (2) THOMAS ENDERTON and his wife Susan

(Little is yet known of Thomas and Susan Enderton, the parents of William Henry Enderton. Both are reported to have been of New York. As stated previously in "The Enderton Family", it is believed that Thomas was a brother of John Enderton. The parents of Thomas and John have not yet been located, but their father may have been the John Enderton who served with the Philadelphia City Militia during the Revolution. See the write-up referred to for further details.

It is reported that Thomas Enderton was dark, as was William Henry and all his children except his daughter Mary E. (May). It is also alleged that Thomas wore earrings, which may be fancy, hearsay, or merely spite. Children of Thomas and Susan Enderton, other than William Henry, have not as yet been located).

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which appears to be a directory or a list of contacts. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are listed below them. The list includes names such as "Mr. J. H. Smith", "Mrs. A. B. Jones", and "Mr. C. D. Brown".

2. The second part of the document is a letter or a message, written in a cursive script. It begins with "Dear Sir," and contains several lines of text. The text is somewhat difficult to read due to the cursive script, but it appears to be a formal communication.

3. The third part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first part. It includes names such as "Mr. E. F. Green", "Mrs. G. H. White", and "Mr. I. J. Black".

4. The fourth part of the document is a letter or a message, written in a cursive script. It begins with "Dear Sir," and contains several lines of text. The text is somewhat difficult to read due to the cursive script, but it appears to be a formal communication.

5. The fifth part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first and third parts. It includes names such as "Mr. K. L. Gray", "Mrs. M. N. Hall", and "Mr. O. P. King".

6. The sixth part of the document is a letter or a message, written in a cursive script. It begins with "Dear Sir," and contains several lines of text. The text is somewhat difficult to read due to the cursive script, but it appears to be a formal communication.

7. The seventh part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first, third, and fifth parts. It includes names such as "Mr. Q. R. Lee", "Mrs. S. T. Young", and "Mr. U. V. Adams".

8. The eighth part of the document is a letter or a message, written in a cursive script. It begins with "Dear Sir," and contains several lines of text. The text is somewhat difficult to read due to the cursive script, but it appears to be a formal communication.

9. The ninth part of the document is a list of names and addresses, similar to the first, third, fifth, and seventh parts. It includes names such as "Mr. W. X. Baker", "Mrs. Y. Z. Clark", and "Mr. A. B. Evans".

10. The tenth part of the document is a letter or a message, written in a cursive script. It begins with "Dear Sir," and contains several lines of text. The text is somewhat difficult to read due to the cursive script, but it appears to be a formal communication.

DESCENDANTS OF (3) WILLIAM ENDERTON and his wife Nancy Kerr

This William Enderton and his descendants are a recent find by this compiler and have not been fully researched.

A granddaughter of his, Amy Bringham, had a list of John Enderton's children which had been in the possession of this William's son Charles Henry Enderton. It appears that John, Thomas, and William may have been brothers, John being born in 1800, Thomas about 1809, and William in 1817.

William Enderton was born in 1817, married Nancy Kerr, whose father(?) James Kerr 1777-1852 is buried next to Nancy in West Lafayette Indiana. They moved from Rochester N.Y. to Lafayette Indiana in 1848. During the Civil War, William was a member of the 10th Ind. Bat. and died of fever in 1862. He is buried in Athens Alabama. His eight children are:

31. Sue (Susan?) Bringham, b. 1845 in Rochester N.Y.; went to Lafayette Ind. when 3 yrs old; m. Samuel Bringham; d. 1937; their children:
 311. Willie Bringham, b. 1871; d. 1874
 312. Leona , b. 1875; d. 1929
 313. Charles Bringham, b. 1877; d. 1881
 314. Amy L., b. 1880; add: 722 Bexley Rd., West Lafayette Ind.
32. Blanche Gardner-Morley, b. 1847; m. 1st Gardner, m. 2nd Morley; d. 1915; ch by Gardner:
 321. Maude , b. 1870; d. 1894
 322. Lily , b. 1872; d. 1911
33. Zachariah Enderton, b. 1849; d. unm. 1879
34. Mary (May), b. 1851; d. 1852
35. Scott W Enderton, b. 1853; d. unm. 1899
36. Fred V Enderton, b. 1856; d. unm. 1950
37. Thomas Enderton, b. 1858; m. d. 1936; has a stepdaughter Mrs Herman Benson, 6315 W. 57th St, Mission Kans.
38. Charles Henry Enderton, b. abt 1860 in Lafayette Ind. When his father died and the children were farmed out, Charles Henry was adopted by a Superintendent of the Methodist Church, received a good education, and was graduated in Law. In 1890 he went to Winnipeg Canada, engaged in the Real Estate business, and became the wealthiest and the most respected real estate agent in Winnipeg. He never married. He died of a heart attack while driving his car in June 1920.

DESCENDANTS OF ANDREW WISE (1784-1868?)

This manuscript is the result of an amateur's effort to gather some data on the descendants of his gfeatgrandfather Andrew Wise of Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, and California.

While Andrew had ten children, whose dates of birth are known, there is a lack of information on fâve of those children: Julia Ann, Charlotte, Sarah Maria, Joseph, and Jacob. His first child, William, died when young. Hence, data in this manuscript are limited to the following children and their descendants:

Peter D. Wise	born 14 Feb 1826 in N.Y.
Andrew Jackson Wise	born 22 Jul 1832 in N.Y.
George Washington Wise	born 19 Jul 1840 in Ill.
Amanda Ellen Wadsworth	born 4 Dec 1844 in Ill.

It is hoped that recipients of this effort will notify the compiler of corrections and additions, of which undoubtedly there are many.

THE WISE FAMILY

FOREWORD:

Family traditions relate that our Wises were "Pennsylvania Dutch"; other traditions say they were English; others say they were German, with "Weis" as the original name.

Limited research, which may have no bearing on our case, shows that an Andrew (Andreas) Wise at 22 years of age came to America in the ship "Adventure" from Rotterdam Holland arriving in Philadelphia 23 Sep 1732. A John Wise served in the 6th Battalion of the Northampton County Pennsylvania Militia during the Revolution. It is said that Judge Wise of Virginia was an uncle of our Andrew Wise. None of the above has as yet been investigated to determine his relationship, if any, to our Andrew Wise. Nor have the Census records of Pennsylvania for 1890 been checked for a five year old boy; our Andrew was born there about 1785.

It is possible that a searcher for the parents of our Andrew Wise might find something in the records of Washington County Pennsylvania, for there lived Wise families whose children were given names like Peter, Andrew, Jacob, and Henry, as were the descendants of our Andrew. For example, among the Abstracts of Wills of that county registered at Little Washington Pa., is one proved 10 Oct 1781 of Adam Wise, a farmer of Ten Mile Creek. This Adam and Catherine Wise had 13 children, of which only Peter at that time was of age; Jacob, Henry, and Andrew being among his younger brothers. The will was executed by Peter Wise (probably Adam's son), an Andrew Wise (probably a relative), and John Buckingham. Each of the first two executors was of an age that he might be our Andrew's father. No research as yet has been made on our possible English ancestry.

ANDREW WISE

Our Andrew Wise was born in 1785 (1784?) near or in Philadelphia Pa. He may have been English, German, or "Pennsylvania Dutch". His parents, brothers, and sisters are not yet located. He married Hilah Eleanore ("Ellen") Walling of New York (Albany?) N.Y. who was born 9 May 1805 (1793?), and is reported to have died near Vina California. (This compiler has a photo of Andrew and Ellen).

From New York State, where several of their children were born, they moved to Missouri and Illinois where Andrew farmed. We know that in 1856 he was in Henry County Illinois, for on 15 Apr 1856 he was deeded land by his son Andrew Jackson Wise and wife Sarah in Henry County Illinois. (This compiler has the Quit Claim deed). His son had deeded the farm to Andrew before going west in a covered wagon to Oregon.

After 1864, when his sons Peter and George Washington Wise were part of a wagon train that also headed west in covered wagons, Andrew ^{and Hilah went with them.} ~~is reported to have moved to Arizona and later to California.~~ It is said that he died near Fall River California in 1869 (1868?) at 84 years of age. His place of burial has not as yet been determined. The Illinois Census for 1850 and 1860 have not as yet been checked for additional data. Andrew and Ellen had ten children:

1. William , born 30 May 1824
2. Peter D. born 14 Feb 1826 in N.Y.
3. Julia Ann born 2 Feb 1828
4. Charlotte born 6 May 1830
5. Andrew Jackson born 22 Jul 1832 in N.Y.
6. Sarah Maria born 6 May 1835
7. Joseph born 18 Jul 1837
8. Jacob born 19 Jul 1839
9. George Washington b. 19 Jul 1840 in Ill.
10. Amanda Ellen born 4 Dec 1844

The dates of birth of Andrew's ten children, as given above, were taken from Peter D Wise's Family Bible, which is in the possession of his granddaughter Amy Smith in Medford Oregon.

To date, data have been obtained only on the following four of Andrew's children: 2. Peter D.

5. Andrew Jackson
9. George Washington
10. Amanda Ellen

Andrew's first child, William, is reported to have died when young. His eighth child, Jacob, was killed in the Civil War. No attempt as yet has been made to trace descendants of his other four children: Julia Ann, Charlotte, Sarah Maria, and Joseph.

On the following pages each of the four children on whom data are available is taken in turn, along with his or her known descendants, a number being given each individual to indicate parentage.

(For example: Peter D, being the second child of Andrew, is #2. Peter's first child, Andrew Jackson II, is #21; his second child, Charlotte, is #22. Charlotte's first child, Rosetta, would be #221; her children would be #2211, 2212, 2213, etc.

Hence, person #2214 is the 4th child of #221, who was the first child of #22, who was the second child of #2.)).

In some cases the known descendants may not be listed in order of birth because dates of birth are unknown.

Additions and corrections will be greatly appreciated by the compiler

1. William Wise, b. 30 May 1824; died when young.
2. Peter D. Wise, b. 14 Feb 1826 in N.Y.; d. 21 Oct 1900;
m. 14 Nov 1849 Elizabeth Ann Benson dau of Henry W. and Elizabeth (Myers) Benson who was b. 14 Jan 1836 in Tenn.,
d. 14 Oct 1895 aged 59 yrs 9 mo 3 days. Both are buried at Yreka California.

They came west in a covered wagon in 1864 with 6 children; a 7th was born enroute in Idaho Territory. The wagon train of 17 wagons which had left Prinesville Missouri included Wise, Parkinson, Benson, and Thoma-son families. When they reached the Rocky Mountains the train was split, some taking the northern route and some the southern. It is reported that most of those who took the southern route were killed by Apache Indians. Two Parki(n)son girls are said to have spent 20 years in captivity. One of them died shortly after her re-lease, the other is said to have written a book descri-bing her twenty years in captivity with the Apaches.

Peter D's family took the northern route and reached Oregon; some wagons of his part of the train having stopped in Wyoming and Montana. Peter D continued on and finally stopped in Germantown, known today as Artois California. They had only the front two wheels of the covered wagon left, one ox, and a milk cow. In German-town Peter D took up a Squatters Rights and raised his children. (This compiler has photos of Peter D and his wife Ann). The Great Registers of California have Peter D registered at Tehema, Tehema County as a farmer 1868 to 1877, and at Igo, Shasta County in 1879 and 1882. It is reported that when all got malaria, the family went to Siskiyou County California where Peter D. and his sons Andrew Jackson II, Peter Jackson, Lafayette, and Jacob filed homesteads and the first three sons raised their families. His son George, however, went on to Jacksonville Oregon.

Peter D and Elizabeth Ann Wise had nine children:

21. Andrew Jackson Wise II (photos), named after his uncle Andrew Jackson Wise, b. 24 May 1851 in Illinois. He was 13 years old when he, 1 sister and 4 brothers accompanied his parents and other Wises west in covered wagons, arriving in Germantown, now known as Artois California. Later he accompanied his parents to Siskiyou County California where he filed a homestead. In the Great Register of that county for 1890 we find him registered as living at Willow Creek. He married first Lysle on 17 Dec 1875 and had three children by that marriage: Everett, Ann, and Myra (photo). He then married Mary Jane Herr (photos) and had one child by this second marriage: Eva Viola. He died in 1933.

her mother-in-law Hileh Eleanor (Ellen) Walling Wise, farmed in Missouri and Illinois; came west in a covered wagon in 1861 with two small children, Jesse and Rouben; was a farmer, mechanic, and inventor; he died 2 Aug 1911, is buried 4 mi NW of Hyampom, Trinity Co, Calif. Sarah, who had two other marriages, d. , is buried at Paskenta California. Andrew Jackson and Sarah had 8 children.

The Walling family of New York (Albany?), into which Andrew Jackson and his father married, and the Ladd, Tilden, Stark, and Inman families are reported to have been connected.

From New York, Andrew Jackson moved west to Missouri and Illinois. It is reported that he owned land near Nauvoo in western Illinois; it is known that he owned land east of there in Henry County Illinois, for this compiler has a deed by which Andrew Jackson and Sarah, for $200, turned over some 36 acres to his father Andrew in 1856. This Quit Claim Deed, dated 15 Apr 1856, was witnessed by Julius S. Hinman, Justice of the Peace, and recorded in Vol 23 page 188 Henry County Records 4 May 1856, Cambridge Illinois, by Wm T. Dalrymple, Clerk of the Circuit Court and Ex Officio Recorder. The land was: "that certain piece or parcel of land known and described as follows; to wit: The West half of Lot Number Two (2) of the Northwest Quarter of Section Number Four (4) in Township Number Fifteen (15) North of Range Number Three (3) East of the 4th P.M. containing thirty five acres and 95/100ths of land be the same more or less situated in the County of Henry and State of Illinois." In the deed, father and son are called "Andrew Wise Sr." and "Andrew Wise Jr.", the son signing "Andrew J Wise", his wife "Sarah Wise".

The following tale was told this compiler by a granddaughter of Andrew Jackson's brother George: "Andrew Jackson Wise was plowing a field near Nauvoo Illinois. using a pair of beautiful black horses. A Mormon came up and said 'Last night while I slept I had a vision, and the Lord told me I was to take those two blacks.' Andrew Jackson replied 'That's a strange coincidence, for I too had a dream about these horses last night. I was to beat up anyone who tried to take them.' And Andrew Jackson did just that."

The following stories were told by Sarah Wise to her grandson Herbert Bronson Enderton when he was a small boy:

"Andrew Jackson and I came west to Oregon in a covered wagon around 1860. Andrew had been offered fine farms in Missouri and Illinois by my mother if he would only stay there and be contented. But there was no holding him. So we sold our property in Illinois and left a few years later for the west when Jesse and Reuben were very small.

Enroute we had to contend with Indians every day. We had come within sight of Omaha across the river, and, after getting camp settled, most of the men went across the river to town, leaving the women and children. I had my mirror or looking glass in my hand, and was going to comb my hair when I looked up and saw an Indian chief. He demanded the glass, but I told him he couldn't have it. He chased me around the wagon with a tomahawk. I ran round and round the wagon, then climbed up into it and put the glass in a barrel of flour. He went right after it; but when he climbed upon the wagon he saw Andrew there asleep. He had been bitten by black gnats until his face was a sight! The Indian stopped and asked: "Small fox?" (small pox); I said "Yes". The Indian got away in a hurry, calling "Small Fox!" to all the other Indians. Days afterwards, I saw the Indian chief riding along the crest of a hill some distance from the wagons. He called to me: "Swap two pair moccasins one buffalo robe for look-in-glass." No one was allowed to sell or trade with them, so I kept my "look-in-glass."

One of the men in the wagon train had a huge St Bernard dog which the Indians wanted for eating. The owner refused. When the Indians poisoned the dog, the owner tied weights on the dog and threw him into the river so that the Indians couldn't get it.

Squaws would ride up and watch me cook-- wanting to learn.

Enroute to Oregon on the Old Oregon Trail, we passed through the beautiful Grande Ronde Valley near the Blue Mountains in eastern Oregon, but passed up that rich valley in looking for good land."

"After getting through to Oregon, we established a nice home at Salem. Then, about 1864, we had word from Andrew's brother George, back along the route west, that his horses were alkalied and that he needed help. George and his brother Peter were coming to Oregon in their covered wagons. Andrew at once mortgaged our home in Salem and went back after his people. The mortgage was never paid, and we lost our nice home- a fact which I never got over." We then went to California."

"Andrew played the violin; so did our son Reuben. Andrew was a well-to-do man at one time. He owned hundreds of acres in Missouri and a good farm in Illinois, but he was no manager. He should have become a rich man, for he had an inventive brain. He made the first combined harvester in California, but did not trouble to have it patented. The Wises were always inventing something."

The Wises had good brains and ability, but certainly were not managers. Andrew Jackson and a German planned and laid out the Greystone Winery at St. Helena California.

In some of the Great Registers of California Counties (all have not been searched), we find Andrew Jackson Wise registered at Ft Crook, Shasta County, as a machanic. 1837, from 1869 to 1878, "born in N.W.". Here, in 1877, we find also his brother George. Andrew J. registered in Inghrams, Tehema County in 1877, stated age 40. From 1883 to 1890 he was registered at Cottonwood, Shasta County, as an inventor. In 1896 he registered at Middlefork (Gulch), Shasta County, as a mechanic.

Andrew Jackson Wise was an active man, even in his old age. At his son Jesse's (Eb's) property in Eureka, when an old man, he climbed to the top of the house to talk to some workers and fell off the roof. It didn't hurt him. He remained active until he burned his feet, in Trinity County, as a result of stomping out a grass fire while wearing rubber boots. He had put old dynamite in a stump to blow it up, but instead of exploding, the dynamite ignited and set fire to the surrounding grass. Doctors had to be brought in to the isolated area to treat his feet. As travel was slow, and doctors missed several days of practice, they charged about $400 per visit. This misfortune occurred on property owned by Andrew J on the South Fork of Trinity River. Andrew J's property was in Trinity County, and the adjacent property of his son Eb was on Simms Creek, also called Wise Creek, in Humboldt County. Both properties were about 9 miles northwest of Hyampom, which is west of Hayfork, California.

Andrew Jackson Wise died of cancer of the throat at 82 years of age.

A fact, that was never divulged to the grandchildren, was that Sarah apparently divorced Andrew Jackson and later had two other marriages. She married a Bucklew, which marriage did not last long. She then married Mitchell, ^{b 1838, d. 1912-3, plurality of 1/3.} (Marshall?) Ruff. This explains why a headstone ordered at her death by a daughter and carved "Sarah Cornelia Wise" was never placed in the cemetery; she died a Ruff. Her grave in the Paskenta Cemetery is marked by a metal plate inscribed "Mother Wise".

Startling facts were learned by this compiler when he visited "old Tom" Hulse(?) in Flournoy California, where Andrew J's and Sarah's daughter Olive May was born. Tom remembered all the Wise family, and said: "I went to school with your mother and her sisters and brothers. And that Grandpappy of yours could hold more whiskey than any man in northern California!" Tom's wife said: "My father married your grandmother". She then explained that after Sarah had gotten rid of Bucklew, she married Ruff, the father of Tom's wife.

Andrew Jackson and Sarah Cornelia (Walling) Wise had 8 children: Jesse Ebenezer, born about 1857; Reuben Ramay, born about 1860; Ella, born March 1861; Emma, born ; Cynthia (Mollie), born ; Starling A., born 27 March 1869; Carrie M., born 13 June 1872; and Olive May, born 14 Feb 1876.

51. Jesse Ebenezer ("Eb") Wise, b. 1857 in Ill. When quite small he came west in a covered wagon from Illinois with his parents and brother Reuben. He first married Flora, by whom he had two children; he now married Annie Bland; his third wife was Margaret Walden by whom he had one daughter. He died 19 Nov 1917.

In some of the Great Registers of Counties of California, we find Eb registered at Paskenta, Colusa County, age 24, as a laborer from 1882 to 1885, "born in Illinois". In 1888, at age 31, he registered at Cottonwood, Shasta County, where he again registered in 1890. (Other Great Registers have not been searched).

Eb was around San Francisco in his younger days. At that time he and his brother Reuben were hard up, and to make money they donned long underwear for tights and put on a show on a San Francisco stage.

His path took him from San Francisco to Oroville and Butte County, and later to Humboldt County where he owned property for about 15 years- until he died- on Simms Creek, also called Wise Creek, near its junction with the South Fork of Trinity River. The property was about 9 miles northwest of Hyampom, California. His father had adjacent property which lay in Trinity County.

Eb made excursions from this property, but always returned to it during the summers. In 1909 he lived on Harrison Street in Eureka California; then on 8 acres in Freshwater (southeast of Eureka); in 1911 back in Eureka, before returning to the South Fork of Trinity River. His only son was drowned in that river.

Eb died 19 November 1917 at the age of 58.

His children were Flora and Jesse E Jr (by his first wife), and Margaret Elizabeth Jessie (by his third wife).

52. Reuben Ramay (Raynie) Wise (photos), b. abt 1860 in Ill.; came west in a covered wagon with his parents and brother Eb; m. Margaret ("Maggie") Ringle.

Like his father Andrew Jackson, he played the violin and was inventive. He invented an automobile transmission and, learning from his father's mistake, patented it. He sold it to General Motors for $40,000; but his lawyer absconded with the money.

In the Great Registers of Counties of California we find Reuben registered at Riceville, Tehama County, as an engineer, age 21 in 1880. From 1884 to 1885 he was registered at Corning, Tehama County, as an engineer. In 1893 and 1890 he registered at Cottonwood, Colusa County, as a machinist, age 27. In 1892 he was at Bluff, Tehama County, a machinist, age 33. All registers have him born in Illinois.

He died ; both Rube and Maggie are buried in East Lawn, Sacramento, Calif. They had 5 children: Earl Ringle, Norma, Irma E, Felice, and Roy.

58. Olive May (Ollie) Enderton (photos), was born 14 Feb 1876 in Flournoy, Tehema County Calif. She was graduated from Normal School in Red Bluff Calif. She was living in Henleyville Calif when she married 24 May 1896 William Herbert (Bert) Enderton (photos), born 25 Jan 1874 in Melvern Kansas, a mining man then living in Middlefork Calif. The marriage was performed by J.F. Jenness. Their first home was a frame house built by Bert in Harrison Gulch (Knob), Shasta County California, where he was a miner.

Bert's activities took him and his family many places- Mill City, Lovelock and Winnemucca in Nevada; mines in the vicinity of Cornucopia and Baker Oregon; El Tiro and Boludo in Sonora Mexico, Mexico City and Oaxaca Mexico; Nogales, Arivaca, and Fortuna Mine near Yuma Arizona; and Clearlake California. Only once did Ollie not accompany Bert- when he went to Nome Alaska and the infant sons prevented her going with him. Many of the places they lived were rugged, isolated, lonely, and uncomfortable, but Ollie was a devoted wife and mother and never complained.

Upon Bert's retirement, they built their home at 543 N. 17th St., San Jose California, but continued to travel, seeing Hawaii and all of the United States, their home on trips often being a small house trailer.

Upon Bert's death 16 July 1943, Ollie continued living in her home, declining to live with either son, until her death 4 April 1956. Ollie and Bert are buried side by side, as they spent their lives, in Oak Hill Memorial Park, San Jose California.

They had 3 children: Otto, Herbert, and Clifton who died in infancy:

581. Otto Enderton, b. 21 Apr 1897 in Knob, Shasta County Calif. He flew for the US Marines in WW I, and has been in aviation since then, with over 13,000 hours in the air. After WW I he joined a flying circus and barnstormed over the country; managed airports and flying services; did "stunt" flying for the movies; operated a flying boat service; was a Colonel pilot in Huerta's Mexican revolution; flew the US Mail; conducted flying schools; and took a position with the Civil Aeronautical Administration. During WW II, as a lieutenant commander, he flew transport planes for the Navy. After the war, he returned to the CAA and in 1947 was sent to Berlin to direct civil aviation for the War Department. Back again in the US, he was Director of FAA in northern New York state until his retirement. He continues to run instrument flight tests for pilots, and serves as flying consultant of a Cleveland corporation. (photos)

He married Mary MacKay 25 Dec 1932. Address: 57 State St., Caledonia N.Y. No children.

582. Herbert Bronson Enderton (photos), b. 21 Nov 1898 at Harrison Gulch (Knob), Shasta County, Calif. Had 3 mo. service in WW I; was Cadet USMA West Point NY 1919-1923; Field Artillery Officer Regular Army 12 June 1923 to 31 Jul 1954 when he retired for physical disability in line of duty after 35 yrs 3 mo 4 da in the Army. In 1929 was the first foreign officer to serve as Officer of the Guard in King Alfonso's Royal Palace in Madrid Spain. WW II service was in the ETO; campaigns: Normandy, Northern France, Rhineland, Central Europe with 79th Div.

On 24 Jul 1929, at Yuma Arizona, he married Marian Irene Doan (photos), b. 18 Sep 1905 at Silverbell Arizona, daughter of John and May (Cargill) Doan. Address: 2350 Mazzaglia Ave., San Jose Calif. They have 4 children: Ann, Alice, Herbert, and Donald:

They came west in a covered wagon in 1864-1865 at the same time as his brother Peter D, ^{Sister Amanda} and perhaps his father Andrew. Along the route, George's horses became alkaliied, and he needed help. He sent word to his brother Andrew Jackson Wise in Salem Oregon, who mortgaged his home there and went back to help his brother George (see account of #5, Andrew Jackson Wise). George m. 2nd Barbara (Hayward) Chapman (photo), who had been divorced from her alcoholic husband. Chapman later murdered her and shot himself. He m. 3rd ? . He died abt 1912 on Shovel Creek.

The Great Registers of Counties of California show that George registered at Ft Crook, Shasta Co., as a farmer in 1869 and 1871; at Butte Mountain, Tehema County in 1875 and 1877; at Riceville, Tehema County in 1880; at Corning, Tehema County in 1884 and 1886.

He spent some time near Ashland Oregon running cattle with the Neal, Dunn, and Baron families. His son Jacob and Ella Dunn considered marriage. Dunn wanted to get an appointment to West Point for Jacob, but George left the area to go join the Wises at Colusa California.

TO THE EDITOR:
I am writing to you to inform you of the results of my research on the properties of the new material which I have discovered. The material has many interesting properties and I believe it will be of great value to the scientific community.

The material is a new type of polymer which has been synthesized by a process which I have developed. It has a unique structure and exhibits a wide range of physical and chemical properties. I have conducted extensive experiments and the results are very promising.

I have found that the material is highly resistant to heat and oxidation, and it has a very low coefficient of thermal expansion. It is also very strong and has a high tensile strength. These properties make it a very attractive material for many applications.

I have also found that the material is very soluble in many organic solvents, and it can be easily processed into a variety of forms. This makes it a very versatile material and one which I believe will find many uses in the future.

I am very pleased with the results of my research and I believe that the material I have discovered is a significant contribution to the field of chemistry. I am now working on further experiments to determine the full range of properties of the material and to develop new applications for it.

I am sure that the material I have discovered will be of great value to the scientific community and I am looking forward to the day when it will be widely used. I am also looking forward to the day when I can share my research with you and the other members of the scientific community.

I am very grateful for the opportunity to share my research with you and I am sure that you will find the results of my research very interesting. I am also very grateful for the support and encouragement that I have received from you and the other members of the scientific community.

George Washington Wise had 3 children by Chastina: Jacob Harvey, Friscilla Eleanor (Nellie), and Julia. He had one child by Barbara: Ray Haynon Wise:

91. Jacob Harvey Wise (photo), b. 21 Sep 1865 near Salem Ore; m. Alice Parkinson (photos) b. 3 June 1867 at Lyons-Clinton. Alice was formerly married to Joseph A Andrews (1889) and had a son Claude Beard Andrews a lawyer. Jacob's mother died in his arms when he was about 16. From then on he never neglected his sister "Nellie".

With his father he installed the first bottling works in Yreka. After his marriage he was in Ashland Oregon; then to Klamath County; on a homestead in Siskiyou County; to southern California where his father-in-law had considerable property. Jacob liked the northern areas, and went into partnership with Sidney Ickes on a cattle ranch (Lost River Ranch). Then for 4 years he owned the Ft Klamath Hotel. Alice took him back to southern California where he formed the Oceanic Oil Company and later the Crescent Oil Co. He was President of the latter company until his death in 1941. Jacob and Alice had two daughters:
